SCUOLA ITALIANA – ROME, ITALY

ABOUT THE SCHOOL AND THE CITY

Scuola Italiana is a school of Italian language and culture for foreigners, with a branch in Florence, in the shadow of Brunelleschi's great Dome, and a branch in Siena near the Piazza del Campo. The school attracts many different types of students, with sixty percent of students aged between 17 and 30 seeking to improve their Italian language skills and awareness of Italian culture. All teachers are highly qualified. Most of them have studied Italian language and literature. All teachers have been specially trained in teaching Italian to foreigners.

Rome is one of the most beautiful cities in the world and features more than 2,600 years of European history and culture. The city unites the splendor of its unique artistic, archaeological, and environmental heritage. At the same time Rome is both a bustling city offering a continuous assortment of urban activities, it is a city where you can relax outside at a cafe in front of breathtaking ancient ruins.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Scuola Italiana teaches according to the Direct Method. From the first day on, at all levels, only Italian will be spoken. Continually promoting the use of verbal communication permits you to learn Italian 'naturally'. In advanced courses the written language will also be promoted. On the first school day there is an entry test, written and verbal.

Standard Group Course

20 hours per week. The Standard Course is held throughout the year on 6 levels of ability. Duration is 2 to 24 weeks. The 4 lessons are held daily from Monday to Friday, usually beginning at 9:00. Courses may also be held in the afternoon at 14:00. There is a maximum of 12 students in each class.

Intensive Group Course - Florence Only

30 hours per week. The Intensive Course consists of 4 lessons Standard Group Course per day in the morning and 2 extra lessons of group language course in the afternoon. In the afternoon session students will practice in speaking and conversing. There is a maximum of 12 students in each class.

Group/Tutor Course

25 hours per week: 20 Group + 5 Tutor. Continual language practice, maximum concentration through intensive work with a personal teacher five hours per week and active practicing of communication skills. All levels can be accommodated and those above beginner level can include special vocabulary.

Professional Italian

30 hours per week: 20 Group + 10 Tutor. Intermediate level is required. Classes with a private Tutor focus on vocabulary from one of the following areas: general business, banking, law, tourism, medicine, fashion, architecture, literature, cinema, or theatre.

Optional History and Humanities Courses

The History and Humanities courses are organized on a two-week basis and can be extended to four weeks (art courses are always 4 weeks). They are held in the afternoon or evening.

Program & Admission Information - Rome, Italy

Programs

From the first day of class forward only Italian will be spoken in the classroom. This "total immersion" in the language helps students of all levels to quickly learn the language. By continually promoting the use of verbal communication, it permits the student to learn Italian 'naturally'. It unites the theory and practice of learning the language and helps to quickly build the students confidence in using the language. Students practice their Italian in real-life situations, through role playing with your teacher, and other participants. In advanced courses the written language will also be a major part of the course curriculum.

On the first day of class there is a placement test (written and oral), which is used to place the student in the most appropriate level. Students are then evaluated throughout there studies and moved through the levels as their knowledge of the Italian language increases.

Standard Group Course 20 hours per week. The Standard Course is held throughout the year on 6 (monthly) levels of ability. Duration is 2 to 24 weeks. The 4 lessons are held daily from Monday to Friday, usually beginning at 9:00. If there are many participants the Standard Course may also be held in the afternoon at 14:00. There is a maximum of 12 students in each class.

Group/Tutor Course 25 or 30 hours per week - 20 Group + 5 or 10 Tutor. Continual language practice, maximum concentration through intensive work with a personal teacher five hours per week and active practicing of communication skills guarantee swift progress and success in the shortest possible time. All levels can be accommodated and those above beginner level can also include vocabulary oriented to certain professions during the Tutor hours. Additional hours can be accommodated upon request.

Tutor Course 20 hours per week. Consists of 4 private lessons 5 days per week, you create your own class schedule. Continual language practice, maximum concentration through intensive work with your personal instructor, and active usage of your communication skills equate to swift progress and increased language proficiency in the shortest possible time.

Comments

"It was interesting being one of the few Americans enrolled. I had the opportunity to meet and become close friends with people from all over the world.

Student, Hollis Hills, NY.

"The instructors were excellent and approached the students in a good natured positive way. They showed considerable imagination in developing and presenting their material, especially in conversation class."

Retired Architect, St. Paul, MN

"I feel that my experience at the school (Rome, Italy) has significantly improved my level of communicating in Italian, and I now feel much more 'marketable'!

English Teacher, New York, NY

*"What I liked most:
1) Experiencing a city like Rome including the culture people, while at the same time learning the language.
2) The fact that at school only the foreign language is spoken by the school employees.
3) The school's central location in the city and my nearby housing."*

Finance Manager from Norway

"(NRCSA) further qualifies as a happy answer to the question 'How do you find something different that doesn't cost the Earth?'"

- * Italian Cinema
- * The Language of Opera
- * The History and Language of Theatre

An intermediate level of Italian is required to participate in the Professional Italian program.

Program for Teachers of Italian Language The main objective of the course is to support Italian language instructors by bringing teaching methods and theoretical knowledge up to date. The course is designed to revitalize linguistic and didactic abilities, and refreshes the socio-economic and political-cultural knowledge of Italy for class participants. The course focuses on refining theoretical and practical bases for teaching Italian as a foreign language, offers lessons in diction, and provides greater insight on student teaching in general. This program meets the requirements for a LINGUA grant, which Italian-language teachers within the European Union can apply for.

Preparatory Courses for Admittance into Italian University Programs Preparatory courses for University studies in Italy is designed for students who intend to study and enroll at Italian Universities. To be admitted into an Italian University, foreign students must pass an entrance exam (Italian language proficiency and scientific subjects). The exams are usually held in September at the University chosen by the applicant. The application deadline for this program is March 19, 2005.

Optional History and Humanities Courses The History and Humanities courses are organized on a two-week basis and can be extended to four weeks (art courses are always 4 weeks) to give all students the opportunity of attending these courses. They are held in the afternoon or evening. All courses are conducted in Italian.

- * Italian Cooking Course, 2 weeks, 2 evenings
 - o The course provides an introduction to and hands on experience in the preparation of meals from various regions of Italy. Course also includes a recipe book, and takes place one evening per week. All Levels Accepted.

- * Italian Wine Course, 2 weeks, 2 evenings
 - o The course consists of an introduction to the processes involved with the creation of wine, as well as wine tasting sessions which enable the participant to differentiate wines from all main wine producing regions of Italy. Course takes place one evening per week. Post Beginner Level Required.

- * History of Italian Art, 2 weeks, 12 lessons
 - o This course offers an introduction to Romanesque, Gothic, Renaissance, and Baroque artistic styles, and enables the student to become acquainted with the works of Botticelli, Leonardo, Raphael, and Michelangelo (6 hrs/wk). Post Beginner Level Required.

- * Drawing or Painting, 4 weeks, 24 lessons
 - o The school in Florence offers on a regular basis courses in drawing and painting. All Levels Accepted.

- * Italian Design, 2 weeks, 12 lessons
 - o The course presents the history of furniture and handcrafts design from the 1930's to 2000 (6 hrs/wk). Intermediate Level Required.

- * Italian Fashion, 2 weeks, 12 lessons
 - o The course discusses the history of Italian fashion from Palazzo Pitti and the birth of Italian fashion, to the dresses of Giorgio Armani for the new American stars (6 hrs/wk). Intermediate Level Required.

Admissions & Academic Credit

The school welcomes students age 18 years and older regardless of educational background, occupation or nationality. No previous knowledge of Italian is required except where otherwise indicated.

Students desiring credit for their language studies should contact their home school or request the NRCSA Credit Fact Sheet. Generally, U.S. universities consider 15 hours of study to be equal to 1 semester credit.

For general information on academic credit, please click here.
