"Excellent. I even caught the right bus to Cuernavaca. I appreciate the prompt, personal help I got on the phone also. I read all the material you sent. I have already recommended your services to several other teachers. I don't know what I enjoyed most - the location in Cuernavaca, the homestay, the school giving so much - the classes so well done - the excitement of Mexican culture - I loved it. Nina Noroz family - very clean - excellent cooking. Alberto and the daughter were also helpful teachers. I want to go back to their family this year. The school was great. They were very helpful and even accepted a suggestion I gave - They were wonderful about writing recommendations for me."

Teacher, Spokane, WA

- * Reading and correct pronunciation.
- * Hand-writing, drawing, cutting, modeling, etc.
- * Homework practice (optional).

Recreational Activities

Children learn Spanish while participating in:

- * Hand-on activities such as mask making, pinatas, ceramics and kite decoration/flying.
- * Sports: Swimming, Soccer, and more.
- * Theater and oral expression.
- * Workshops: Songs, Music, and Photography.

A team of 20 teachers, supervisors, coordinators, and technical staff operate the Children's Program. They are all carefully chosen, and have significant experience in accommodating the needs of children. This program is available for children who are traveling with a parent or parents enrolled in a language program at the Universidad Internacional.

Admissions & Academic Credit

Students age 17 years and older are welcomed regardless of educational background, occupation or nationality. Students under the age of 17 must be accompanied by an adult unless registered for the Teen program. No previous knowledge of Spanish is required except where otherwise indicated.

Students desiring credit for their study programs should contact their home school or request the NRCSA Credit Fact Sheet. Generally, U.S. universities consider 15 hours of study to be equal to 1 semester credit.

The University is accredited by the Universidad Autónoma del Estado de Morelos (UAEM as of 3/18/93 code 92-I-1). All of its programs have been formally recognized by the Commission on Higher Education of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools in a recent evaluation of the SUNY-Brockport Study Abroad Program at the school (1996).

Hundreds of U.S. universities have given credit for study at this institute based on preauthorization. Generally, one credit is given for each week of Spanish study (20 hours.) Grades consist of an A-F or Pass/Fail. The instructors keep a daily record of each student's performance and of the material covered in class. A final examination can be given upon request. A written summary of your course work and individual achievement can be provided for a student requesting credit. Credit can also be given for mini courses. One credit is usually given for each 16 hours of class. A 2-3 page report must be written if the mini course is to be taken for credit. The critique, composed in Spanish, must evaluate both course content and the instructor's performance.
