SPANISH LANGUAGE SCHOOL – BUENOS AIRES, CORDOBA AND BARILOCHE, ARGENTINA

ABOUT THE SCHOOL AND THE CITY

Spanish Language School is dedicated exclusively to teaching Spanish as a foreign language in Buenos Aires and Cordoba and Bariloche Argentina, offering an opportunity to study at two locations where students can learn a great deal about Argentine culture and the Spanish language. Diplomats, business people, travelers, and youth from all over the world have studied at Spanish Language School. All of the teachers at the institute hold a Master's degree in Education or Literature and have extensive experience in teaching Spanish to foreigners. The average age of Spanish Language School students is 30 years.

Buenos Aires is a sprawling metropolis that rises from the Río Plata. Block after block of tidy, high-rise apartment buildings interspersed with 19th century houses continue as far as the eye can see. Dozens of suburban neighborhoods, each with its own particular character and well-groomed parks, surround the downtown area. Spanish Language School is located in downtown Buenos Aires.

Cordoba is the colonial capital city of Argentina on the edge of the Sierra Chica mountain range with approximately one million inhabitants. It has the oldest and one of the most prestigious universities of the country, founded by the Jesuits in 1622, and the center of the city is rich in Spanish colonial architecture from the 16th century. Prior to the rise of Buenos Aires, Cordoba was Argentina's center of arts and learning, a place of scholars and priests, churches and universities. The areas surrounding Cordoba offer opportunities for traditional and adventure tourism as the hills and valleys are filled with springs, crystal clear rivers, and artificial lakes.

I really liked the town it was located in. It was a big enough city to explore by yourself but not so big it was impossible. The city was convenient also with its public transportation and walking distances.
