UNIVERSITY OF GUADALAJARA – GUADALAJARA, MEXICO

Originally founded in 1792, University Guadalajara is among the largest institutions of higher learning in Mexico. The Foreign Student Studies Center (CEPE), part of the University, was established in 1948 to offer foreign students the opportunity to learn Spanish as well as acquire knowledge of Mexican and Latin American culture.

Guadalajara was founded in 1542. Known as the "City of the Roses", it is in fact the second most important city in is the cradle of Mexican folklore and the traditional culture that is most representative of the nation: mariachi music, charrería and tequila. The city enjoys a temperate climate that averages 27 degrees centigrade or 80 degrees Fahrenheit the year round. It has a culture of rural tradition, now complemented by modern industrial development and commercial expansion

The Foreign Student Studies Center has two primary goals:

- 1) To help the non-Spanish speaking student learn enough linguistic skills to communicate in Spanish in real-life settings.
- 2) To offer "cultural" courses in social and humanities areas to students interested in learning more about the Latin American reality. These courses are taught by teachers holding advanced academic degrees of the University.

Guadalajara was founded in 1542 and is in fact the second most important city in the Republic of Mexico after the capital, Mexico City. Guadalajara is the cradle of Mexican folklore and the traditional culture that is most representative of the nation: mariachi music, charrería and tequila. The city enjoys a temperate climate that averages 27C/80F year round.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Learning is based on the Communicative Approach, without losing sight of the need for grammatical accuracy. Spanish language courses are taught in Spanish and are designed to help students acquire fluency and sufficient communicative skills to cope with any situation that they are likely to encounter. The group sizes are no bigger than 15 students. The Center The Center operates ten levels of Spanish instruction, which are in turn divided into three areas: Spanish for Beginners: Levels 1, 2, 3 and 4; Intermediate Spanish: Levels 5, 6, 7 and 8; Advanced Spanish: Levels 9 and 10. Each five week session lasts for 100 hours. The school has morning and afternoon classes, from Monday through Friday.

Spanish Term The Spanish Term at the Center consists of 4 hours a day of intensive Spanish and students can enroll in the Short Course, Quarter or Semester programs. Those with an advanced level of the language will receive 2 hours a day of Spanish and one Content Course.

Cultural Workshops Apart from its academic program, the Center offers the opportunity to participate actively in Mexican culture through creative workshops. They take place twice a week and require a minimum group size. These workshops are available at additional cost. Workshops include * Pottery * Mexican songs and guitar accompaniment * Folk dancing * Contemporary Latin dancing * Mexican cookery.

Supplementary Spanish Courses These courses are available at additional cost * Advanced Grammar I and II * Grammar for Bilingual Students I and II * Conversation I Levels 3 and 4; II Levels 5, 6 and 7; III Levels 8, 9 and 10 * Written Spanish I * Written Spanish II.

Content Courses These courses are available for those who demonstrate ability to understand spoken Spanish to an advanced level (levels 7 and up) and are at additional cost. The courses vary according to the time of year students are attending classes. Some of the courses available are the following: * Contemporary Mexican Literature * Latin American Literature * Hispanic American Literature * General History of Mexico I.

Regular Courses at the Campus Foreign students may enroll through the Center to attend courses at the Humanities and Social Sciences and at the Economic and Administrative Sciences University Campuses for a minimum of one full semester and a maximum of two semesters.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Homestay The Center has about 250 family homes available offering accommodation to students who wish to develop their language study through total immersion. These offer single or shared rooms and three meals a day.

University Guest House is available on request.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

The Foreign Student Studies Center offers one day and weekend excursions to their students at additional cost. Examples of one day excursions are trips to Tlaquepaque and Tequila Chapala.
