MEDITERRANEO LANGUAGE SCHOOL – PISA, ITALY

ABOUT THE SCHOOL AND THE CITY

Mediterraneo Language School organizes its courses in Pisa, a city that is away from mass tourism. Here it is still possible to live with the natives and get to know their way of life, all adding to a profitable study visit. The Mediterraneo Language School is a member of F.E.D.E. (European Federation of Schools).

The teaching staff are all qualified to teach Italian to foreigners. Small classes allow a personal relationship between teacher and students. Besides introducing students to the Italian language the teachers also point out cultural and social practices of Italian life, so that the students may understand events and behavior.

Pisa, a city of great historical and cultural interest in the heart of Tuscany, is considered the ideal place for studying Italian. Besides the Leaning Tower and the Piazza del Duomo, Pisa is famous for many other masterpieces of art. Its university, founded in the 13th century, is one of the oldest in Europe and the "Scuola Normale Superiore" is frequented by students from all over the world. All this testifies that Pisa is a center for study. Pisa also has a convenient geographical situation, as it is only a few miles away from Florence, Lucca, Volterra, Siena; the sea is only a four mile distance and can easily be reached by public transportation.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Mediterraneo Language School organizes their courses for beginners to advanced students on four teaching levels:

* Basic level: This course is appropriate for beginners. It supplies the student with a basic capacity of expression and comprehension of Italian. The teacher introduces the basic grammar rules and a use of the day-to-day language.

* Medium level: This course intends to develop the basic grammar knowledge and amplify the students vocabulary along with a good oral and written expression capacity. Dictation, summaries, and grammar exercises are based on more and more complex linguistic structures.

* Advanced level: This level improves the knowledge of written and oral Italian, introducing synonyms and idioms, studying complex grammar forms as well as syntax, exercises, literature and summaries. The conversation not only follows the student's interests, but is guided by the teacher and directed on topics of the Italian life.

* Graduate level: This level enables the student to express themselves naturally and fluently while using the most appropriate terms. The specific aim of this course is the improvement of grammar and syntax knowledge, enrichment of the vocabulary and a special perfection in form and expression style.

The student is assigned to the appropriate level after passing a written and oral test on the first day. Classes are not held on national and bank holidays.

Group Course

20 classes per week. Group courses in Italian language and culture are held 4 hours per day, Monday-Friday. Each class has 6-12 students.

Tutorial One-on-One Course

20 classes per week. Individual courses are available for students who want an intense study program. The course can be "made-to-measure" according to the needs of the student. Vocabulary/subject requirements should be stated on the NRCSA Registration Form. Classes are 4 hours per day, Monday through Friday.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Homestays

The families are carefully chosen by the school and must meet with strict standards for acceptance. Lodging with a family also includes breakfast, with full or half board being optional.

Other types of accommodation are available on request and at additional cost.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

Excursions are organized by the school to the most interesting towns in Tuscany and there are many cultural and sporting activities that can be enjoyed during leisure time. In June, Pisa offers some interesting folklore and art festivals. From June to September students are offered special rates on renting deck chairs, umbrellas, changing huts and tennis courts at a pleasant, well-equipped beach at Tirrenia, a bathing resort only 15 minutes by bus from Pisa. All students receive a special student card that is valid for the duration of the course. It entitles the students to discounts at sports centers in/around Pisa.

Admissions & Academic Credit

Students age 18 years and older are welcomed regardless of educational background, occupation or nationality. No previous knowledge of Italian is required except where otherwise indicated.

Students desiring credit for their study should contact their home school or request the NRCSA Credit Fact Sheet. Generally, U.S. universities consider 15 hours of study to be equal to 1 semester credit.

For general information on academic credit, please click here.

Certificates & Exams

After attending at least a 4 week course, students can take an examination (written and oral test) in order to obtain the "Certificato di Conoscenza della Lingua Italiana." The examination fee is payable locally.

Preparation courses for admission exams to Italian universities are also possible to arrange and are at additional cost.

CONDITIONS: Each institution listed herein is independent of the National Registration Center for Study Abroad (hereinafter referred to as NRCSA, controls, and will periodically make changes in the program. Classes may fill, be changed, or dropped by the sponsoring academic institutions. NRCSA is a division of Mibar Ltd. and is not responsible for these changes or other actions beyond its control such as strikes, postal delays or loss, mechanical breakdowns, weather, government actions, delay or acts/omissions of suppliers. NRCSA may make changes or substitutions or cancel any program. In the event of entire program cancellation by NRCSA, liability is limited to refunding all monies paid to NRCSA for said program. Passengers electing not to use portions of a program shall not be entitled to a refund. No agent or representative of NRCSA shall have the right to alter the provisions listed herein. Costs based on tariffs and exchange rates effective the date of printing of this material, and are subject to change. Additional costs resulting from such change will be paid by the participant. Registrations are valid when accepted by NRCSA in Milwaukee. The passage contract used by the airline, when issued, is the sole agreement between it and you. Photographs of or statements by participants may be used by NRCSA. NRCSA, group leaders or foreign coordinators, at their discretion, may get medical assistance for participants, or place them in a hospital, or fly them back to the U.S. for medical treatment. All costs related to medical treatment or evacuation will be paid by the participant. As visitors you are expected to adhere to foreign rules and customs. If the foreign staff feels you are not adhering to these rules and customs, your participation in the program shall terminate immediately without refund whatsoever. A "homestay" is defined as living with a local person(s) in the foreign country and may not be multi generational, multinational, etc. It is the responsibility of the participant to have required proof of citizenship and visa(s) if applicable - check with the consulate of the country(s) you will be visiting.

INFORMATION USE: Information provided to NRCSA will be shared with participating organizations to facilitate your registration.

NOTE: Classes canceled in honor of local holidays are not made up. Foreign Language schools use placement tests. If there is no group at your level, smaller group or tutor classes may be substituted with fewer hours per week. Classes are conducted entirely in the target language. See Fast Facts Guide for more information.
